3-4 July 2014

University of Bordeaux (France)

Organized by

INFER (International Network for Economic Research)

and

LAREFI (Laboratoire d'Analyse et de Recherche en Economie et Finance Internationales), Université de Bordeaux

Workshop Objectives

This workshop brings together economists to discuss recent topics related to International Economics. Researchers are invited to submit both theoretical and empirical papers. In particular, we welcome papers related to the following topics:

- Liquidity, solvability and financial crises
- Contagion and vulnerability of emerging economies
- Monetary regimes in open-economies
- Impact of globalization on financial stability: what role for regulation?
- Towards a new European growth model: what role for the economic policy?
- Public indebtedness and macroeconomic stability
- The currency war and the reform of the international monetary system
- Trade agreements: multilateralism versus regionalism
- International trade: extensive margin versus intensive margin
- Finance and international trade
- Border and behind the border protectionism

The workshop is open to anybody involved in these research areas, including both young and experienced researchers, Ph.D. students, post-doctoral researchers, and professionals from business, government and non-governmental institutions.

Keynote speakers

We are happy to welcome the following internationally distinguished keynote speakers:

Benoît Mojon (Banque de France, Ecole Polytechnique)

Jaime de Melo (University of Geneva, CEPR)

Organization

The workshop is jointly organized by INFER (International Network for Economic Research) and LAREFI (Laboratoire d'Analyse et de Recherche en Economie et Finances Internationales, Université de Bordeaux)

INFER is a non-profit international scientific organization that stimulates research and research networking in all fields of economics through international workshops and conferences.

Website: www.infer-research.net

LAREFI is a research institute developing research programmes in international and finance economics. The scientific project of the unit includes two research axes. The first one, "Financial globalization and crises regulation" focuses on international finance and associated risks. The second one, "International trade, inequality and development" deals with the challenges of globalization.

Submission of Papers

Only full papers may be submitted, preferably in pdf-format. Papers must be in English and must include a cover page with the following information:

- An abstract of up to 500 words, with JEL classification and no more than 5 keywords
- Authors' full name, affiliation
- Contact details for corresponding author, such as address, phone and e-mail

Papers should be submitted electronically, to the workshop organizers at:

infer@u-bordeaux4.fr

Deadline for paper submission is: April 15, 2014.

Authors are allowed to submit more than one paper. All submitted papers will be peer reviewed according to a high-quality and fast referee process. Authors will be notified whether their paper is accepted for presentation at the workshop not later than May 15, 2014.

Paper presenters are expected to discuss one other paper during the workshop. The discussant assignments will be made by the workshop organizers at a later date. As the workshop intends to strengthen the INFER network, participation is welcome even without paper contribution.

Publication of papers

INFER offers several publication possibilities to workshop participants, including book volumes and journal publications. In particular, the authors of outstanding research papers will be invited to submit them to a special issue of International Economics, journal published by Elsevier (more information on this journal at: <http://www.cepii.fr/IE/index.asp>). The procedure for submitting the papers to this journal will be specified in due course. You will also be informed about other publication possibilities during the workshop.

Registration and Registration Fee

The registration fee for presenting and non-presenting participants will be:

- 120 EUR: INFER members
- 170 EUR: other participants

Please note: the annual membership fee for private INFER members is 25 EUR only (institutional INFER members 200 EUR). You are invited to become a member!

The registration fee includes all lunches, drinks and the workshop dinner. It doesn't include travel and accommodation expenses. All workshop participants have to register. Please note that paper submission is not regarded as a registration.

Please register and pay the registration fee on the INFER website (www.infer-research.net). Payment can be done via PayPal on the website. Note that you can use the same website to become an INFER member. You will receive a confirmation e-mail.

Deadline for registration and payment is June 7, 2014.

In case of late registration, the fees will be increased by 50 %.

Location and travelling

The workshop will take place at the following address:

Pôle Juridique et Judiciaire de l'Université de Bordeaux
35 Place Pey-Berland CS 61751
33076 Bordeaux - FRANCE

Bordeaux is a port city on the Garonne River in the Gironde department in southwestern France. Bordeaux is located close to the European Atlantic coast, in the north of the Aquitaine region. It is around 500 km (310 mi) southwest of Paris. It is the ninth largest city in France, the capital of the Aquitaine region, as well as the prefecture of the Gironde department. Bordeaux is the world's major wine industry capital. The city's nickname, "La Belle Endormie" (Sleeping Beauty), makes reference to the old center which had black walls due to pollution. Nowadays, the historic part of the city was almost completely renovated and is on the UNESCO World Heritage List as "an outstanding urban and architectural ensemble" of the 18th century.

Bordeaux is around three hour away from Paris - Montparnasse station by train (SNCF website: www.voyages-sncf.com). Bordeaux is also served by an international airport, Aéroport de Bordeaux Mérignac, located 8 km (5.0 mi) from the city center in the suburban city of Mérignac. You can take the bus 1 or the shuttle to get to the city center.
